

SALONS

of DISTINCTION: revenues $250,000 to $499,999

DETLEV HAIR + COLOR

"Our color bar is accessible without going to a back room—clients like the 'no secret formulations behind doors.' And, our styling stations are clean and elegant; there's a great flow through the salon."

Location:	Coral Gables, Florida
Opened:	April 2002
Owner:	Detlev Gessner
Website:	www.detlevhc.com
Salon Style:	High-end Contemporary
Design Investment:	$110,500
Square Footage:	1,150
Styling Stations:	12
Furniture:	MG Bross/Gamma Arredamenti
Design:	by owner
Architecture:	Manny Mora
Salon Distributor:	Iowa Beauty Supply

"Overall, the salon gives a clean and refreshing look. Very well-designed in the coloring and shampoo areas."
—Ku

"Love the modernist quality and clean graphic imagery. Very Miami-esque."
—Bliss

ECLIPSE HAIR STUDIO

"It was challenging to blend our love of gothic, old-world decadence with the edginess of cement flooring, aluminum roofing, exposed iron beams and industrial lighting, but we feel our fusion of design will titillate guests' senses and complete the salon experience."

Location:	Atlanta, Georgia
Opened:	October 2002
Owners:	Scott A. Ryden and John Devlin
Salon Style:	Urban-Gothic Fusion
Design Investment:	$92,400
Square Footage:	4,600
Styling Stations:	30
Furniture:	Takara Belmont
Design:	by owners
Architecture:	Square Feet Studios
Salon Distributor:	Columbia Beauty Supply

"Great design in a difficult space."
—Ducoff

"If I am ever in Atlanta, I'll make a point of visiting this salon. I love everything about it—it's truly unique."
—Colon